Activating Your Ambition

"You've got to be very careful if you don't know where you are going, because you might not get there."

- Yogi Berra, Hall of Fame American Baseball Player and Manager

If unsure of what you would wish for, you may benefit from considering your life's purpose and what it means. Until you have clarity and alignment in your overriding purpose, important life areas, objectives and goals, you could easily waste your three wishes, not to mention the investments you are currently making in your self, organization and family.

Activating Your Ambition

B. What is your purpose? What do you want to do or be when you grow up?

C. Life Focus Areas – In what areas of your life do you want to focus, e.g. family, faith, profession, finance, fun, mental acuity, physical condition, community service?

D. Objectives are general desires for which you want to establish specific goals, e.g. improve my selling skills. What are your top objectives that fall under the life areas in which you want to focus?
